R Resident Contributor X

South Florida's real estate market is hotter than ever, and the latest buzz is all about Glass House Boca Raton. Located at 280 E. Palmetto Park Road, this stunning new development is raising the bar for luxury coastal living with its sleek design, top-notch amenities, and unbeatable location.

Whether you're looking for your dream home, a vacation getaway, or a smart investment, this guide has everything you need to know about this exciting property.

Why Glass House Stands Out

If modern luxury is what you're after, Glass House Boca Raton checks all the boxes. As Downtown Boca's first glass-structured condominium, this 10-story architectural masterpiece offers a boutique collection of just 28 expansive residences—so exclusivity is built right in.

The homes range from two to four bedrooms (plus a den) with sizes between 2,504 and 3,950 square feet. Think soaring 9-foot ceilings, floor-to-ceiling hurricane-resistant glass, and premium finishes that scream sophistication. The gourmet kitchens and spa-like bathrooms? Just the icing on the cake. Plus, the floor plans include both half- and full-floor options, giving you plenty of space to live, entertain, and relax.

And let's talk about the views. From your private oasis, enjoy incredible sights of the ocean, Intracoastal Waterway, and nearby golf course. Oh, and did we mention the rooftop pool? It's the ultimate spot to unwind and soak up Boca's beautiful sunsets.

Location, Location, Location

Nestled on East Palmetto Park Road, Glass House puts you right in the heart of Downtown Boca Raton. Stroll to the city's best dining, shopping, and entertainment, or take a short walk to the pristine beaches less than a mile away. For added privacy and convenience, there's even a discreet entrance on East Royal Palm Way.

A Lifestyle Upgrade

Living at Glass House isn't just about the property—it's about the lifestyle. Residents can enjoy preferred memberships at The Boca Raton and Sallis Health (subject to availability), making everyday life feel even more exclusive and luxurious.
