The lobby at Glass House Boca Raton welcomes residents with an atmosphere of understated elegance, where refined design details and natural light create a serene first impression.

The primary bedroom at Glass House Boca Raton offers a tranquil retreat with expansive glass walls, high ceilings, and sophisticated finishes that evoke a sense of calm and contemporary comfort.

Boca Raton has long captured the attention of discerning buyers drawn to its blend of coastal charm, cultural vitality, and proximity to South Florida's major business hubs. As the city continues to flourish as a destination for refined living, the debut of Residence 23 at Glass House Boca Raton further elevates the standard for sophistication and modern comfort in the heart of downtown.

Priced at $3.43 million, this three-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bathroom corner home spans 3,235 square feet of interior space and features a 1,224-square-foot private terrace, seamlessly merging open, light-filled design with a sense of serene exclusivity.

The kitchen combines sleek European cabinetry, engineered stone countertops, and premium Miele appliances, creating a space where form and function meet in perfect balance.

The primary bathroom at Glass House Boca Raton evokes a spa-like ambiance with elegant materials, thoughtful lighting, and serene design elements that transform daily routines into moments of relaxation.

Within Residence 23, every detail has been curated to balance beauty and function. The home's open-concept layout is enhanced by private elevator entry, high ceilings, and expansive glass walls that invite natural light and scenic views. The gourmet kitchen, appointed with European cabinetry, engineered stone countertops, and a Miele appliance suite, sets the stage for effortless entertaining, while the spa-inspired primary bath and en suite guest rooms create a retreat-like ambiance.

"Residence 23 embodies the refined elegance and effortless livability that define Glass House Boca Raton," said Noam Ziv, partner and CEO of 280 E Palmetto Park Road, LLC. "From its corner location and spacious floor plan to its exceptional finishes, it captures the essence of luxury downtown living."

The Palmetto Lounge offers a refined social atmosphere where residents can gather, relax, or entertain, surrounded by contemporary design and a warm, inviting ambiance.

The rooftop captures the essence of coastal leisure with a French Riviera-inspired pool, private cabanas, and panoramic views stretching from the ocean to the Intracoastal.

Residents enjoy exclusive access to Glass House Boca Raton's rooftop pool oasis, a French Riviera-inspired escape featuring a pool, jacuzzi, private cabanas, outdoor catering kitchen with barbecue, and panoramic views of the ocean, Intracoastal, and golf course. A state-of-the-art fitness center complete with spa, sauna, steam room, snow shower, and recovery zone enhances the wellness experience, complemented by a residents-only lounge and 24-hour concierge service.

Designed by garciastromberg, the nine-story building offers just 28 residences, each showcasing interiors by Spectrum Interior Design and smart home technology for modern convenience. With three- to four-bedroom residences priced from $3.4 million to over $7 million, Glass House Boca Raton presents an intimate and elevated expression of contemporary coastal living.
